GATEWAY HORSEWORKS a PA nonprofit corporation

11. Gateway HorseWorks (the "Corporation") is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.
12. Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles of Incorporation or any provision of applicable state law, the Corporation shall not have the power to carry on any activities the existence of which would cause it to fail to qualify as an organization exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, as they now exist or as they may be amended.
13. The affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed and conducted by the Board of Directors. The qualifications, election, number, tenure, powers, and duties of the members of the Board of Directors shall be as provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation.
14. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered to adopt, amend, and repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation.
15. To the fullest extent permitted by the Nonprofit Corporations Laws of the State of Pennsylvania, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Nonprofit Corporations Laws are hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of the directors of the Corporation, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Nonprofit Corporations Laws. Any repeal or modification of this paragraph by the directors of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitations on personal liability of a director of the Corporation at the time of such repeal or modification.
16. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles and the Bylaws. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

17. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

18. This Corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation, and to add other provisions to the Articles of Incorporation by the laws of Pennsylvania, at the time such laws are in force, by a majority vote or other percentage as specified in the Bylaws, of the members of the Board of Directors, the governing body of the Corporation; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that no amendment, alteration, change, or repeal of any provision of the Articles of Incorporation shall authorize the Board of Directors to conduct the affairs of the Corporation in any manner or for any purpose which would cause the Corporation to lose its tax-exempt status under the provisions of the Code or any future United States Internal Revenue laws.

19. The following persons shall serve as the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation:

1. Kristen de Marco
2. Lori Patrick
3. Glen Reyburn
4. Tricia Allison

These directors shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified pursuant to the By-Laws of the Corporation.
